CHRISTOPHER PRO INSURANCE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

- You are a highly valued customer, and our agency takes pride in the services we provide to you.
- Acting as an independent insurance agent or an insurance broker, we are able to offer you excellent service and competitive prices because we can access insurance coverage, in most cases, from more than one insurance company.
- Our agency does business with multiple companies, so we can offer you a variety of coverage choices and customize a plan to meet your specialized needs.
- Our agency is compensated on a commission basis by the insurance company that writes your insurance. This commission percentage is set by the company, not by us, and is included as a part of the insurance premium you pay.
- We also transact insurance through a Wholesaler and/or Administrator, which may charge a broker fee for their services; we do not receive any commission from this fee.
- The agency may receive compensation, from time to time for arranging and providing premium financing payment options.
- The agency may also charge a broker fee which will be disclosed on the proposal provided to you.
- If you would like more information about our compensation or have any other questions, please contact us.
- Our agency is grateful to have you as a client, and we welcome any suggestions you have to assist us in serving you better. We appreciate your business
